About the Community:

Moab, Utah, known for its dramatic scenery of red rock arches, towers and cliffs, is located at the base of the LaSal Mountains and along the bank of the Colorado River. Moab attracts many tourists annually, mostly visitors to the nearby Arches and Canyonlands national parks. The town is popular for its many opportunities for outdoor recreation in stunning natural settings and is a base for mountain bikers who ride the extensive network of trails including the Slickrock Trail; for off-roaders who come for the annual Moab Jeep Safari; for rafters and kayakers who recreate on the Colorado and Green Rivers; rock climbers who summit the many cliffs and towers; and hikers who enjoy the many varied trails and endless opportunities to view ancient Native American art.
